Deterioration in NDMC run schools

1801. SHRI THENNALA G. BALAKRISHNA PILLAI:
DR. M.A.M. RAMASWAMY:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Navyug Schools in NDMC area were opened with the aim of imparting quality education to students of NDMC area;

(b) if so, whether it is also a fact that initially these schools gave good performance;

(c) whether it is also a fact that quality of education in these schools has deteriorated after formation of Navyug Schools Educational Society;

(d) if so, the rationale behind setting up this society;

(e) whether there is shortage of teachers in these schools which is the main reason for bad performance of these schools; and

(f) if so, the steps taken to improve the performance of these schools?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. REGUPATHY): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. These schools have continuously been giving good performance.

(c) and (d) No, Sir. The quality of education has not been affected after formation of the Navyug School Educational Society. The object behind formation of the society was to separate establishment and accounts work for smooth functioning of the schools thereby avoiding unnecessary delays on such matters.

(e) There is no shortage of teachers in these schools. Pending regular appointments, teachers are appointed on contract basis to meet the requirement.

(f) Navyug School Educational Society is taking assistance from specialized international and national agencies for improving quality education and learning process.
